

The student outreach role did not post this year and instead has been gauging interest and planning future activities, including how to get more actively involved with the Legal Literature and Librarianship Course. However, students have been reaching out via LinkedIn and have expressed interest in Coffee Roulette and ways to get involved virtually. The Executive is considering ways that non-Member students can get involved in activities.