

EXCELLENCE AWARD NOMINATION SUBMISSION

ABOUT

Do you know someone who has demonstrated exemplary service towards furthering the profession?

If you do, the TALL Executive Committee encourages you to send in nominations for the TALL Excellence Award! Self-nominations are also welcome! See the next page for details regarding nomination submissions.

Examples of excellence include, but are not limited to:

- Undergoing a transformational project;
- Researching and publishing on an important topic;
- Outreach to a community like another association or underrepresented populations, or;
- Advocating our profession.

A committee chaired by the Past President, and comprising the Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and Membership Liaison will decide the winner of the Award in the amount of $300!

QUALIFICATIONS

In order to be considered for this award, the nominee must be a TALL member in good standing for at least one (1) year.

However, nomination submissions may come from any member of TALL despite duration of membership (unless self-nominating).

Nomination submissions must be done in writing describing the nominee's service and how they have contributed to furthering our profession. See the next page for further details on the written statement requirements.
